

I strongly oppose the proposed changes in media ownership rules. The biases of Fox News are already jokes for late night comedians. Allowing Murdock to own still more of our media would harm our country. At the very least, please extend the comment time and make the final regulations available for public comment.